

Maggy's is abloom for Mother's Day

Maggy's, purveyors of fine fragrances and cosmetics, with shops in Oranjestad and Palm Beach are awash with spring colors to bring the Givenchy Harvest to their customers. Givenchy features three scents, Ararige, Organza and Very Irresistible, all in the glowing yellow, white and pink of spring flowers.

Friday's party was devoted to Givenchy, and the three scents epitomize the colors and scents of spring. Ararige, symbolized by brilliant yellow flowers is deliciously scented with Mimosa from Grasse in France, a wild variety that is considered the finest source for this scent. The blossoms can only be found adorning the winter landscape of the French Riviera, where they fill the air with their delightful perfume.

White bouquets were for Organza, which combines Jasmine, Honeysuckle, Rose Wood, Gardenia, Peony, Ylang Ylang, Nutmeg, and Vanilla. This exotic, sensual fragrance as one would guess is based on the deeply exotic scent of jasmine that flourishes in the climate of southern India, near Madras, where it develops a luxurious scent. The flowers are picked at dawn, still fresh from the cool night.

Finally, brilliantly pink as a fresh picked rose on which it is based, is Very Irresistible. The heady bouquet of the finest, pure Bulgarian roses, Centifolia Rose, Peony Rose, Fantasia Rose, Passion Rose, and Emotion Rose, combined with Verbena Leaf, and Star Anise results in a fresh, bright, and tender aroma, with a vivacious note.

An unusual addition to Maggy's Spring celebration was Flowers by Wilson, who in cooperation with Maggy's can provide breathtaking hand crafted gift boxes delivered to special ladies, along with stunning flower arrangements as was seen at the store.

Not only is Maggy's offering wonderful scents, but their annual Make-up Festival is coming at the ending of May, and gift certificates for a day of being pampered provides a unique and exciting choice. Mothers will get make-up tips from visiting experts, can enjoy a day spa treatment, and will leave the festival with a selection of products equivalent to the cost of the gift certificate.

Audrey Croes Lacle and her daughters along with Diane Fleming and the Maggy's staff welcomed press and loyal customers for a beautiful party to introduce the Givenchy Spring look and scents, just in time for Mother's Day Shopping. Sheelah reminds gift shoppers not to wait until the last minute to find Mama that perfect present, and they have many special gift offerings for the holiday with a scent that she is sure to love. Call Sheelah at telephone # 592-0932 or Diane Fleming at 740-6850 to inquire about the perfect way to thrill your mother with a special surprise on her special day!
